EFFECT OF THE NEWS.

The despatch of the Emperor announcing the concluding of peace, was bulletined in Paris on the 12th, when the French funds immediately rose two and a half per cent.

The news did not transpire in London Lucyant.

The London Daily News says: "The first hopes and expectations of Italy are deceived. History will call Napoleou to strict account for having made war on fulse pretences, and signed a mock and selfish peace, that leaves Austria impregnably fertified in the heart of Northern Italy, and commits the centre of Italy to tion on the part of the Pope's patrons and settlements make long friends." protectors; that takes no account of the the seeds of future wars.
